

Financial Literacy Month Bingo

Color in each activity as you go. Celebrate with a reward when you complete a BINGO or the full blackout. Explore more financial education resources at redrocks.org/financial-education.

My Reward: _____

B I N G O

set a financial goal for 2026	talked about money with a family member	cancelled an unused subscription	looked at your total account balance today	have at least $100 in savings watched a financial education video	increased your retirement contributions this year	used your Red Rocks Credit Union mobile app	saved $500	reviewed your budget in the last 30 days reached a savings goal	checked your library for a book instead of buying one	FREE SPACE	looked up a financial term you didn't know	set up an automatic transfer to savings packed a lunch instead of eating out	have a checking account	said "no" to an impulse buy	have a 401(k) or retirement set up	contacted Red Rocks Credit Union with a question created a debt-payoff plan	sold or donated something you don't use	compared loan rates before borrowing	paid off a credit card	planned for an upcoming expense instead of winging it
